PLATFORM.

C. M. Depew, of the Committee on Resolutions, submitted the following platform, which was adopted and adopted with [illegible]

Resolved, That we [illegible] our thanks for the [illegible] sight with [illegible] work of [illegible] Party [illegible] by the [illegible] armies in the [illegible] allies in the [illegible] and army completed [illegible] nearly all [illegible] the [illegible] with [illegible] slavery and [illegible] the A[illegible]

Resolved, That in [illegible] our [illegible] of the [illegible] things with the spirit of [illegible] been exhibited to [illegible] been their [illegible] the [illegible] we [illegible] this [illegible] is invit[illegible] "by [illegible] army restriction and [illegible] from th[illegible] who have been in [illegible]

Resolved, That the Republican party can never fail to give to the brave men who defended the Union in the army and navy the tribute of profound and grateful [illegible] to have been a soldier of the Union is as proud an honor as to have been a soldier of the Revolution; the country owes to its soldiers and sailors its liberty, its glory, its very life, and we pledge ourselves to [illegible] every just demand they make upon the people, prompt payment of the bounties, generous laws and the assignment of the public lands [illegible] the homestead laws are the best compensation that can be made for their devoted and self [illegible] patriotism.

Resolved, That we demand from the General Government a pure and economical administration of the public affairs, the lessening of taxation, the prompt collection of the revenue, the reduction of the army and navy, a less prodigal management of the public lands, and, as rapidly as consistent with the burdens now resting upon us, a return to specie payments; that we especially demand such a development of the commercial, manufacturing, agricultural and mining interests, as will enable us to increase our public wealth, and thus more easily pay our national debt.

Resolved, That the honor of the American people—as dear to us now as when we welcomed death and sorrow in defense of the Union—demands the payment of the national obligations according to their letter and spirit, and that we regard any attempt at repudiating these contracts or evading their payment, as dishonoring us in the eyes of mankind and a crime against the national honor, only surpassed by the crime of treason itself.

Resolved, That we welcome to our country the people of all lands, that we believe in liberal laws of naturalization and immigration, and that no matter what country claimed the birth-place of an American citizen, the flag should cover him with the majesty of our national power and protect him in peaceable pursuits in any quarter of the world.

Resolved, That regarding the triumph of the Democratic party as the greatest calamity that could befall the American people, we proudly accept as our candidates Ulysses S. Grant and Schuyler Colfax. We accept them as the representatives of all that has been glorious and heroic in our war, and of the wisdom and the courage of Republican statesmanship. Their election will be an assurance that freedom will be maintained, justice enforced, and the national honor protected.

The "White Fawn" Ballet Girls.

[From the New York News.]

At an early hour yesterday evening, William Lindlaw, who says that he is 24 years of age, proceeded to the stage entrance of Niblo's Theatre and attempted to force his way through to the stage. He was intercepted by the doorkeeper, who inquired of him his business, and on receiving no satisfactory response he was ejected from the premises. Not content with this turn of affairs, Lindlaw again tried to seek an entrance when he was immediately given into the custody of Officer Lent of the Fourteenth Precinct Police, who arraigned him before Justice Dowling, at the Tombs Police Court, this morning, where, on ascertaining the nature of the accusation, the following conversation ensued:

Justice (to Prisoner:) Why were you seeking an entrance into Niblo's stage? Did you want to see a ballet girl? (Laughter.)

Prisoner: Yes, sir.

Justice: What is your occupation?

Prisoner: I am a dry goods dealer.

Justice. You didn't expect to find any dry goods there, did you? (Roars of laughter.)

Prisoner. Well no; I didn't go for any particular girl. (Laughter.)

Justice: Oh! you could have been satisfied to take any one. (Increased laughter.)

Officer Lent (to the Justice.) The doorkeeper told me that the prisoner was very desirous of getting on the stage, and that he would not let him go further than the door.

Justice: They should have let him have his own way, if he was so infatuated with the ballet, and he might have fallen into one of the traps. To the prisoner: Where do you live?

Prisoner: In Brooklyn.

Justice (evidently surprised.) In the good, moral City of Churches! Oh, you, naughty man (Laughter.) I know how to dispose of you (with much sternness.) Go directly over to Dr. Beecher, and tell him to give you a good lecture, as I deem myself incapable, if you hail from Brooklyn. (Shouts of laughter.]

The defendant was thereupon discharged, and seemed somewhat amazed at the disposition of his case; but we doubt whether his agreeable disappointment will teach him to obey the Justice's instructions, and proceed to the author of "Norwood" and head of Plymouth Church to receive a reprimand.

Arrangements are being consummated for the organization of a society of the Army of the Potomac, similar to those of the Armies of the Tennessee and Cumberland. The brotherhood of arms seems to be a lasting one. The soldiers are loth to give up the companionship of the field.

Unpublished Incident of President Lincoln.

BY REV. EDWARD EGGLESTON.

Traveling through some sections of Illinois, one is pointed to spots that are already [illegible] by the people, as connected with the career of that simple-hearted, great man, whose memory, which is dear to the whole world, is still more precious to those who knew him before the world discovered him. In one old village, old for the West, they point with pride to a certain place, at the intersection of two streets, as the spot where Lincoln first planted a [illegible]; for the [illegible] deliverer of the nation was in this [illegible] like the first, whom Carlyle calls "George the [illegible]." A railroad director (otherwise [illegible]) delights to tell of the time when he and "Abe" were clerks in the same store, and [illegible] the inquirer that at twenty-two "he was just as much the centre of attraction to those who knew him as he ever was afterward." [illegible] were opposed to him in politics [illegible] his earlier years, with the [illegible] they do not [illegible] was the head of [illegible] the village [illegible]

If you [illegible] Points [illegible] worth [illegible] I was [illegible] I saw, [illegible] Mr. P[illegible] to Washington, who [illegible] wanted me to [illegible] I was [illegible] I to [illegible] anything [illegible] Mr. P[illegible] said that [illegible] fri[illegible] and [illegible] would be [illegible] talk. And so I rose to [illegible] I didn't know what to say. I [illegible] Christ and religion, for I [illegible] about [illegible] that they were [illegible] thought of the time when [illegible] terrible poverty. And so I told [illegible] poor; that I [illegible] through [illegible] in the [illegible] arms were out at the elbows [illegible] with the cold. And I told [illegible] one rule. That was, [illegible] one. I told [illegible] I had [illegible] best I could; and that, if they [illegible] rule, they would get [illegible] about what I said. And [illegible] Pupas said it was just the [illegible] And when the school was [illegible] ers came up and [illegible] thank me for it; though I did not [illegible] was saying anything of any [illegible] next morning I saw my [illegible] prayers."

Just here Mr. Lincoln put his [illegible] at, and remarked that he [illegible] that touched him as had the [illegible] children [illegible]. With that he [illegible] book, remarking that they had given him one of the books from which they [illegible] you hear any poetry like this, Jim?" and he [illegible] to read a piece with all the [illegible] soul. In the [illegible] of verse his friend "Jim, felt a [illegible] and a swelling in his [illegible]. At [illegible] the third [illegible] he saw that the [illegible] East was weeping, and his own [illegible] Leaning toward Lincoln, who was [illegible] out, he saw the great [illegible] that he could not positively see the [illegible] was repeating that little [illegible] How often he had read it, or how [illegible] and simple a [illegible] through his soul, no one can [illegible] influence that little child's [illegible] bringing him to that trustful [illegible] which was so characteristic of him [illegible] ry closing years of his life.

And there is more than one [illegible] fact coming to light now, all going to [illegible] there was more of [illegible] and [illegible] in his origin, and [illegible] in his [illegible] than is set down in the biographies of him.—New York Independent.

A BUSINESS CARD.—The following [illegible] card is going the rounds of the press:

U. S. GRANT, SCHUYLER COLFAX.
GRANT & COLFAX,
Tanners, Washington, D. C.,

respectfully inform the people of the United States, that they will be engaged in tanning [illegible] old Democratic hides, until after the 10th day of November, 1868.

The senior member of the firm having considerable experience in the business, thinks that, by the help of his partner, all work will be done in a satisfactory manner.

Lalande, the French astronomer, [illegible] all prejudices, and affects to consider that the two worst prejudices, which it behooves him specially to attack, are the belief in God and the fear of spiders. On first making one's acquaintance, he asks these two questions: First, "Do you believe in God?" Second, "Are you afraid of spiders?" adding, "I neither believe in God nor spiders;" and, at the same time, drawing from his pocket a gold—box filled with these insects, and swallowing one of them to show the sincerity of his avowal.

The Belmont or Wall street clique have performed the duty with which they charged themselves in the New York Convention—the defeat of Pendleton. They have doubtless ere this spoken collectively, as does an individual in the Midsummer Night's Dream:

"Thus have I Wall my part discharged so;
And being done, away this Wall doth go.

The Mississippi State Journal announces that Judge Louis Dent, brother-in-law of General Grant, who lived in Jackson before the war, and has resided in Mississippi for the last five years, and is an able speaker, is about to canvass Mississippi for the Republican ticket.

The Santa Clara News says there is talk of a company being formed in that county, having in view the gathering of mustard seed to Paris or Liverpool direct, where, they claim, it will sell for from 25 to 30 cents per pound.

The Prospect in California

The California Republican State Convention for the nomination of Presidential Electors will be held on Wednesday August 5th The Republicans in all parts of the State are actively engaged in preparations for a vigorous campaign, and seem to be thoroughly imbued with a spirit of hopefulness The nominations of Grant and Colfax were received with enthusiastic demonstrations The announcement that Grant, the hero and idol of the great Union army, and Colfax, the cool clear headed, steady and patriotic statesman, were to lead the struggle in November, seemed to lift the veil which has for the last year enshrouded the Republican Union party of that State. Their names came upon the Union party like oil upon troubled waters, calming the [illegible] and discontent which divided [illegible] last September and gave the State to the Democracy. This year the loyal vote of California, whatever may be their strength, will be undivided The two thousand votes withdrawn from Gorham, last [illegible] and given to Fay, will be cast this fall with the [illegible] of the party, for Grant and Colfax The [illegible] votes that were [illegible] all, last September, will probably be [illegible] out at the Presidential [illegible]. [illegible] extreme pro[illegible] Republican Union votes [illegible] the Unionists and, we believe, [illegible] by any intelligent Democrat [illegible] of these [illegible] by any [illegible] be counted [illegible]. The Alta claims that [illegible] Republicans, and the [illegible] of the [illegible] 4, 1867, was [illegible] (U.) 40,359; Haight, [illegible]; Fay, (R.) 2,088; total for Gov[illegible] The population of the State [illegible] increased by immigration, [illegible] the [illegible] voting population may be set [illegible] at 110,000. Grant and Colfax [illegible] cast for Gorham and Fay [illegible] not cast last S[illegible] in the Presi[illegible] will get, if we credit the [illegible] who are in [illegible] to [illegible] or say [illegible] of 53,947. Of [illegible] we have no [illegible] information [illegible], nor, [illegible] nobody [illegible]. If we give the [illegible] half of it and the Republicans [illegible] will be [illegible] that, [illegible] to [illegible] the Democratic majority [illegible] is totally wiped out. [illegible] the. [illegible] the D[illegible] the [illegible] require. The [illegible] and [illegible] sort of [illegible] the usual effects [illegible] to [illegible] Republi[illegible]. A battle waged by a [illegible] an united [illegible] be easily lost; but when the [illegible] the [illegible] led by a commander [illegible] led to victory, we may rea[illegible]. We do not [illegible] that California will be [illegible] and be [illegible] placed on the [illegible] so nobly stood by the [illegible] of peril.

[illegible] Trade.—It is [illegible] one of the most [illegible] lines on this coast, is [illegible] of the "Dispatch [illegible] of Coos [illegible] of twenty-four [illegible] and schooners. Of these, [illegible] will be [illegible] in the trade [illegible]; three trade to Puget [illegible] to Coos Bay and ports [illegible] The Orient, Advance [illegible] in the Columbia river, [illegible] Oak Point with lumber [illegible] the [illegible] coast, below [illegible] The Advance and Naumkeag [illegible] to be regular traders here, [illegible] is on the way from [illegible] due. The Melancthon [illegible] San Francisco, for Portland, [illegible] by the brig Orient, in a [illegible]. The Lord St. Jean, a splendid [illegible] of carrying 1,100 tons, now out [illegible] is expected to arrive [illegible] in a short time, when if [illegible] immediately chartered for [illegible], will be put on for Portland The [illegible] have the principal [illegible] at Coos Bay [illegible] another large mill at Santa Cruz, Cal [illegible] Thus when freights are slow at Portland or San Francisco, they have the [illegible] all their vessels busy, with [illegible] for any market which may at the [illegible]. Capt. C. S. Simpson from [illegible] these facts, has been chiefly [illegible] in establishing the line between Portland and San Francisco, and to him the community is indebted for the means of escaping the [illegible] of being at the mercy of the [illegible] line, in the matter of export [illegible]. Should a demand at any time [illegible] up at any of the markets of the Pacific, for our produce, this line will be ready [illegible] vessels as may be necessary, to [illegible] it directly to the port of destination and [illegible] relieve us of much of the onerous tax [illegible] levied on all our shipments via San Francisco.

The next term of the Wallamet University will begin September 14th. The whole number of [illegible] the last year was two hundred and fifty nine, divided as follows Medical department, 21, Collegiate department 30 Preparatory department, 45 Young Ladies department 51, Academical department, 81 Primary department, 31 Total, 259 The prospects for the immediate future of the institution are represented as better than ever before

It is a mistake that Democrats like General Grant less than at any time during the war. They never can hate him more cordially than they did when he was stirring up the Democratic conservatives down in the Confederacy.

Gen Grant went for the Confederacy with [illegible] he commanded, and that is said to be the reason why none of them go for Grant now.

Seymour as Richard the Third

We do not wish to accuse Governor Seymour of plagiarism but his speech to the New York Democratic Convention on his pseudo-declination of the honor conferred, and that in which he accepted the nomination, are wonderfully similar in substance and terms to what Shakespeare makes the Duke of Gloucester reply to the petition of Buckingham Catesby the Mayor of London, and citizens when they asked him to become King Richard of England The following extracts from the tragedy of Richard the Third are of great parallel interest they indicate the artifice resorted to by the hunchback and his cousin to procure his nomination and paint in truly Seymour like language the way in which Horatio consented while saying "I never will

Buckingham I [illegible] upon all your virtues
Your [illegible] in war wisdom in peace,
Your [illegible] virtue fair humility
Indeed, left, nothing fitting for your purpose,
Untouched, or slightly handled in discourse

Gloucester "What tongueless blocks were they
Would they not speak?
Will not the Mayor then, and his brethren come?

Buckingham The Mayor is here at hand protend some fear,
Be not you spoke with, but by mighty suit
And look you get a prayer book in your hand,
And stand between two churchmen
And be not easily won to our requests;
Play the maid s part, still answer nay and take it

(The Mayor and citizens enter, and Gloucester is seen between two church dignitaries with a prayer book in his hand apparently busied with other things than those of earth He answers their proffer of the crown as follows

"I cannot tell if to depart in silence,
Or bitterly to speak in your reproof
Best fitted my degree or your condition,
If not to answer you might aptly think
Tongue tied ambition, not replying, yielded,
To bear the golden yoke of sovereignty
Your love deserves my thanks, but my desert
Unmeritable, shuns your high request,
First, if all obstacles were cut away,
And that my path were even to the crown,
Yet so much is my poverty of spirit,
So mighty and so many my defects,
That I would rather hide me from my greatness,
Than in the vapor of my glory smothered,
Alas! why would you heap these cares on me
I am unfit for State and Majesty—
I do beseech you, take it not amiss;
I cannot, nor I will not, yield to you "

Catesby "Call them again, sweet Prince; accept their suit,
If you deny them, all the land will rue it "

Gloucester "Will you enforce me to a world of cares?
Well, call them again I am not made of stone,
But penetrable to your kind entreaties
Albeit against my conscience and my soul,
Since you will buckle fortune on my back,
To bear her burden, whether I will or no,
I must have patience to endure the load
But if black scandal, or foul-faced reproach,
Attend the sequel of your imposition
Your mere enforcement shall acquittance me,
For God He knows, and you may partly see,
How far I am from the desire of this.

Come (to the bishops) Let us to our holy work again!

Dana's Life of Grant.—From the Messrs Dowing & Co., of San Francisco, we have a copy of the Life of Gen. U. S. Grant, by Chas A. Dana and Bt. Maj. Gen. J. H. Wilson, just published. Those who have read Dana will not need to be told [illegible] the style of the book is [illegible] and candid, nor that the [illegible] of its [illegible] is replete with historical facts. It is just such a book as the common people will read patiently and with [illegible], while the student of biography or history will find in it much to instruct. The authors have [illegible] a vast deal of sifting and simplifying, for which they can but have the thanks of the reading public. The first few chapters are devoted to the early life of the subject, bringing the biography down to the rebellion. Then we have a fair account history in it, followed by a relation of the exciting events of a political and official nature with which Grant has been connected since the war, as General of the armies of the United States, Secretary of War ad interim, etc, down to the time of his nomination by the Chicago Convention for the Presidency The closing chapters are devoted to Grant as a man and soldier, and to his capacities as a statesman and an administrative officer

The book is an elegantly bound volume of 424 pages, containing a portrait of Gen Grant, and several maps of districts made memorable by the [illegible] and decisive battles of the war Messrs Dowing & Co, are agents for the Pacific Coast and Mr J. E. Witherell special agent for this city.

Female Reporters—The recent anniversary meetings at New York brought up some extraordinary things and among the most remarkable were three female reporters The Women's Rights Convention was attended by three ladies, the reportorial representatives of women's rights newspapers in different parts of the country. Two of the three were strong-minded bloomers, and the other had discarded hoops and "sich," and appeared in a meek, fetaring dress. The Sun reporter gives the following spicy description of the force at work.

"Miss Ada Fessenden Craig, of Chicago, was garbed in tight fitting black silk pants, green silk double-breasted vest and gray paletot, which reached a little lower than her hips When she got warm at her work she opened her paletot—placing her right foot on the left knee, and upon the elevated limb was placed her paper, and plied her calling with the utmost nonchalance The other was dressed in orange-colored silk Knickerbocker pants, loose vest, and flowing tunic tightened around the waist The Knickerbocker pants are finished by elastics, the remainder of the leg—a very brawn by the way—encased in thin, flesh-colored, skin-tight stockings The third reporter belongs to the Revolution and was dressed in black, without hoops, immense Panama hat, disheveled hair, green stockings and prunella gaiters."

Reporting public speeches and debates is a business quite suitable to women, and one in which we have no doubt they can become very proficient

How Blair Loves the Irish—In the summer of 1866, Frank P Blair, now Democratic candidate for Vice President, made a speech at St. Louis, in response to a serenade by a Fenian procession He spoke as follows

"Gentlemen I am with you heart and soul, and heartily say, 'God bless the Finnegans [A voice—'Fenians, General] I know what I am talking about, and I say Finnegans [Laughter and confusion.] And I say that I hope to see the cause prosper and flourish, and shall bless the day when Ireland is governed by Irishmen In accomplishing this laudable undertaking, I will do all I can to assist you I will place myself, if needs be, at your head, march with you to Staten Island, oversee your embarkation will stand on the most elevated bluff of the coast and as you raise the green emblem over the Stars and Stripes, while your steamers under full headway are turning their prows to the east, I will say good bye, God bless you and may you be successful in your undertaking May you lift the British lion out of his boots, and wrest from his grasp the emerald gem of the sea, but whether or not you shall succeed in this endeavor, may you each and all remain in Ireland or elsewhere and never again set foot upon these shores You are wanted there, and we can get along without you"

Stirred Her Up—A miner stopping at one of the boarding and lodging houses between Taylor street and the Divide says the Virginia Trespass was troubled a good deal by bed bugs and resolved to start the land lady after them She contended that there were no bugs in the house she had never seen one in her room nor felt one but that did not satisfy our lodger, as he didn't occupy the same room, and was positive there was at least a quart of bugs in close proximity to his bed He procured a small bottle and began to catch and bottle bedbugs He persevered until he had caught and corked up several dozen of the pestiferous insects and after keeping the poor little birds cooped up until they were nearly starved slipped into the landlady's room one evening and deposited the contents of the bottle under the old woman's pillow It is unnecessary to say that she made it "mighty hot" for bedbugs about the house the next day The miner says he never saw such relentless war waged against bedbugs before

The Pittsburg Commercial says the Nicolson pavement is likely to be adopted on all the principal business streets of that city.

Progress of the Central Pacific Railroad—Three Miles Per Day.—The Virginia City Trespass, of July 22d, says

The Central Pacific Railroad is marching eastward with a sweep like the current of a great river. The track is now completed 80 miles east of Reno, or 46 miles east of Wadsworth The rails are laid an average of three miles per day From a gentleman who returned from "the front" to day, we learn that the workmen were yesterday timed by the watch, and that the ties and rails were laid, spikes driven, and cars ran over, upward of one-quarter of a mile in fifteen minutes! Immense trains laden with material, wood and iron, are passing like meteors continually, and the clatter of the track layers is frightful Two sets of hands are engaged, and the work is incessant for sixteen hours every day At this rate the City of Saints will draw nigh unto us with the coming on of the snow, and but little staging will have to be done to "go the Plains across" the coming winter No depots or other accommodations are yet provided beyond Wadsworth, 34 miles from Reno, but another home station will be reached ere long The California papers are bragging about a steam track layer which put down one mile and a half of track per day, between Suisun and Vacaville

The Territorial Enterprise of July 23d has the annexed:

It is said that the track-layers on the Central Pacific Railroad day before yesterday put down the ties and rails, drove the spikes and perfectly completed a little over a quarter of a mile of track in 15 minutes This is indeed what may be called quick work—a track laying machine could not have done better.

The cars are now running to a point 80 miles east of Reno—to a place without name The Company are going ahead so fast—about 20 miles per week—that they do not stop to name the various points reached, and they are running away from our town builders at such a rapid rate that most of them, since the cars have began running beyond Reno, have given up the idea of keeping up with them A few of the more enthusiastic of their number pushed on out to Wadsworth and built hay yards, but the cars now run fifty miles beyond that place, and even the boldest of the town builders stand looking out into the desert after the vanishing iron horse with countenances expressive of the highest disgust while the more timid with their wordly effects upon the end of a stick and their heels to the east, are stirring up the alkali dust on the back track The railroad is too fast for them Before they can finish a building of willow wattles and bunch grass thatch, and spread their array of bottles, the iron horse snorts past them and his wild neigh dies away in the distant nameless desert, and our adventurous speculator in villages pull up stakes and concludes to come back to the base line of civilization and build one town at a time.

A Good Toast.—The Territorial Enterprise says that a few nights ago a party of gentlemen were seated over a bottle of "Krug" in a saloon in that city and good humor ruled the hour Political sentiments were freely discussed, and after several toasts had been drank a gentleman remarked, I m an Irishman and a Democrat. Give us a toast A Federal officer replied, Well, sir, if you are an Irishman and a Democrat I'll give you a toast Here is to the memory of Colonel O Brien, whom a besotted and ruffianly mob murdered in the streets of New York encouraged and harangued on by the traitorous harangue of a Democratic Governor—Horatio Seymour If you are an Irishman, what do you think of the arch Democrat? It's a good bet that Irishman will vote for Grant

Brief—Mr W A McPherson who has been for some months editorially connected with the Salem Unionist takes leave with the following very brief valedictory "My connection with the Unionist has ceased

According to the old German custom the sons were to walk to church after their father, but the daughters before their mother, to show that her eye should never be off them

The Railroad Land Grant

From the Evening Commercial]

Some question has been raised by interested parties whether the Oregon Central Railroad Co the West-side would receive the lands granted by Congress? We think the matter has now been settled beyond all dispute The West side Company filed its papers more than a year ago accepting the grant and was recognized by the Secretary of the Interior No other Company filed any papers and the time limited to file papers has long since expired and has not been extended At the special instance and request of the West side Company Congress extended the time for construction of the road but for nothing else And now since the time has been so extended Hon O H Browning, Secretary of Interior under date of the 8th day of this month has addressed a letter to Mr Gaston President of the West side Company in which letter the Secretary states positively that The grant of lands to aid in the construction of the Oregon Central Railroad was made by the Act approved July 25th 1866 (14 Stat 239) and it provides for the construction of a Railroad and Telegraph line from a point on the Central Pacific Railroad in California to Portland in Oregon Under the authority of this Act and in pursuance of the laws of Oregon the Oregon Central Railroad Company (of which J Gaston Esq is President) are authorized to construct that portion of said Railroad and Telegraph line within the State of Oregon beginning at the City of Portland in Oregon and running thence southerly through the Willamette Umpqua and Rogue River valleys to the southern boundary of Oregon where the same shall connect with that portion of said Railroad and Telegraph line in California to be constructed by the California and Oregon Railroad Company (of which Alpheus Bull Esq is President)

The Secretary of the Interior goes on at great length to furnish Mr Gaston with instructions and forms showing the Company how they must select and locate their lands and withdraw them from private entry The Secretary also directs the filing of maps of surveys and also a map of the general line of the road which have already been sent forward

The Secretary considers the West side Company entitled to the land and the papers now filed constitutes a contract between the United States and the Company which the Government could not repeal set aside or in any way evade so long as the Company complies with its part, and we have no idea that the Legislature of Oregon will ever attempt to unsettle or in any way question the matter

You are very ungrateful to complain said the Knife to the Hedge Don't you know that I am slashing away at you for your own good? Why every cut I give you will tell and when spring comes you will be so gay in green leaves, that the birds will delight to build in you Sir," said the Hedge "in the spring, when my wounds are healed I will thank you, but at present I am too much occupied with my smart to be able to rejoice in the prospect of green leaves"

It is as wrong to judge of a man's character from that of his acquaintances as it is to judge a woman's from the choice she makes of a husband

Portland Og'n, July 28, 1868

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus, I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease, and lay insensible for four hours, when Dr Jim was called, and in 20 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and safe I believe that there is no other doctor on the Pacific coast that could have relieved me as quick as Dr. Jim did M G MORGAN

OREGON PRODUCTIONS.—The manifests of the river steamers and seaward-bound vessels show the following amounts of Oregon produce and manufactures received at and exported from this port during the month of July. In addition to the receipts here noted a considerable amount of produce has been brought to the city by wagons; and of lumber received here the greater portion by far is brought in barges, from the saw mills in the adjacent country. The amounts of lumber thus received we have not been able to ascertain. The past month shows a diminished exportation of flour.

A GOOD CHANCE.—The attention of capitalists is called to the following communication from Independence, Polk county. We doubt not the demand of that section of the country would make the application of capital in the enterprises alluded to the correspondence, largely remunerative. Those desiring to embark in business at that point will find the country all that our correspondent claims for it.

INDEPENDENCE, Polk Co., July 27 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN: I wish to call attention to our thriving town, which seems bound to be the metropolis of Polk county. There are four warehouses erected, capable of holding one hundred thousand bushels of wheat, or more. Five stores, three blacksmith shops, one gang plow manufactory, one saw mill, one hotel and livery stable, one furniture, harness, wagon, cooper and shoe shop, each, are now in operation.

There is now of the best, if not the best, of openings here for a merchant and custom flouring mill, in Oregon. Also for a stove and tin shop. Men of capital can do well in either of these enterprises. A mill, especially, is demanded by the wants of the the surrounding country, this being the most convenient point to a large [illegible] of fine country, and situated on the bank of the Willamette river. Mill m[illegible] men of capital—are invited to visit this place and look at the situation. M.

[illegible] FROM VANCOUVER.—By the Register we receive the following items of news from Vancouver, W. T.: "The Agricultural and Mechanical Society met on the 25th of July and appointed a committee to draft articles of [illegible], and elected permanent officers, as follows: President, Lewis Van Vleet; Vice Presidents, M. R. Hathaway and S. W. Brown; Secretary, Julius [illegible]; Treasurer, S. D. Maxon; Executive Committee, Guy Hayden, A. McAndrew, H. M Knapp, T. M Coffee, G. [illegible], John Timmons, —— Palmer, T. T. Clark, C. C. Styles and A. B. Silly. The society determined to hold a fair during the ensuing fall.....Rev. H. K. Hines performed the ceremony of baptism by immersion in the [illegible] river on last Sunday.....Studies will be resumed at St. Mary's College on the 7th of August...... The Reporter of the Register is sick, hence a scarcity of local news, and perhaps, also, hence, an appropriation of two brief articles from the OREGONIAN without the proper credit.

NEWS ITEMS FROM OREGON CITY.—From the Enterprise we gather the following items from Oregon City: Capt. [illegible] boat at Canemah for the Willamette [illegible] Company......The new steamer of the P. T. Co. will be [illegible] to-day, and Capt. Baughman will [illegible] trial trip with the Albany......The Williamette [illegible] are improving from Main street to the levee......J. W. Lewis has invented a new plow [illegible] to work admirably......Lime has been re[illegible] from Boite Creek lime kiln. It is of a grayish color, and said to be a good article......The exhibition on [illegible] evening, at Washington Hall, for the benefit of the [illegible] Sunday School Library, was a decidedly pleasant [illegible]. The exhibition was ably conducted, and the [illegible] with grace and elegance......Hon. D. P. [illegible] left for the Goose Lake country on Sunday last, in the [illegible] of the Department of Survey.

[illegible] MILL. This mill, situated in the northern [illegible] of the city, is now so far completed as to be [illegible] to receive orders for lumber. At present they have a [illegible] saw which they estimate will cut [illegible] feet of lumber per day. They are [illegible] which, when completed, will [illegible] to saw [illegible] twenty thousand feet daily. This mill is pronounced by men who are competent judges in saw mill [illegible], to be as complete a one as is in [illegible]. Mr. Orrin H. Rodgers planned and constructed this mill, and the [illegible] which has been [illegible] in its [illegible] and operation gives assurance of his thorough [illegible] as a competent millwright. We believe he also [illegible] the new saw mill of Hayden, [illegible] & Co. at the [illegible] end of the city. Messrs. Bates & [illegible]'s advertisement will be [illegible] in to-day's issue.

[illegible] INTO A NEW TRADE.—We learn from reliable authority that the steamer Wilson G. Hunt will soon be sent around to Puget Sound, to run regularly in the trade [illegible] to Victoria. The steamer New World has been sold to [illegible] in California and will be shortly [illegible] to San Francisco. An opening will, therefore, be [illegible] for a first class steamer on the Sound, and the [illegible] will [illegible] fill the bill. She is as well fitted as any river or Sound steamer on the coast, and in point [illegible] is little second to the New World, while she is [illegible] less expensive boat to run. She is staunch built, [illegible] freight capacity and splendid passenger accommodations, and will be found well adapted to the [illegible].

[illegible] NEWS.—The steamer Okanagan last evening [illegible] Salmon, from Hume & Co., Oak Point, to be shipped to San Francisco by the steamer to-day. She goes down the river again this morning to tow the Almatia, now loading with lumber at Oak Point Mills, to sea. The Narragansett is loading at Oak Point, and will soon be ready to sail. The brig Advance will commence loading with lumber at the same place as soon as the Almatia hauls off the berth. The Okanagan on her return will probably have in tow the brig Brewster, now past due at this port.

[illegible] vs P. Raleigh; ordered that execution [illegible].

Oregon Iron Company vs J. C. Trullinger & Co; argued and submitted. Wm. Strong and D. Logan for plaintiffs; Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for defendants.

UNPAID LETTERS.—The following letters are held in the Portland postoffice for pre-payment of postage: Edward Warren, McMinnville; J. R. Williams, New Westminster, B. C.; Charles Gosein, Victoria; Jeff. Carpenter, [illegible], Ala; O. P. Hale, Blakely, Ala; Mrs. Samuel R. Work, St. Louis, Mo; W. S. Ward, Moorup, Conn.; [illegible], Moosup, Conn.; Mr. Goss, Hood River, Ogn.; Eliza Miller, San Francisco, Cal.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The popular auctioneer, A. B. [illegible], will sell to the highest bidder, this morning, the following desirable real estate: Lot 2, and north half of lot 5, block 27, Caruthers' Addition; also, one half of block 161, and a valuable farm three miles from East Portland, containing one hundred and fifty acres. Those desiring a good bargain had better attend. See his advertisement.

DR. LINDSAY.—Rev. A. L. Lindsay, D. D., some months since called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church in this city, arrived here last evening by the stage from the south, having made the entire trip from New York overland to San Francisco. He will preach to-morrow morning and evening. All are invited to attend.

INSANE.—Virgil O. Newson was brought down from Salem yesterday, by W. S. Barker, and taken to the Asylum. He became insane several years ago, but had, it was [illegible], entirely recovered, but some two weeks ago, he began to show signs of returning derangement. He is the son of David Newson, Esq., of Marion county, and was a young man of good promise. His case is now a sad one indeed.

SHEET IRON PIPE.—The Water Company have workmen [illegible] in laying down sheet iron water pipe to supply the people in the northern portion of the city. This pipe is much cheaper than the cast iron pipe ordinarily used, and if it [illegible] the purpose well, and the connection of the supply pipes with the mains can be made successfully it will prove quite a saving to the company.

FROM SITKA.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright arrived here from Sitka on yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. She left here on the 2d of July and was eleven days making the trip to Sitka harbor, including stoppages. She remained in port at that place five days, and made the return in thirteen days stoppages included.

BROUGHT IN.—C. A. B. Patterson, who escaped from the Asylum for the Insane at East Portland, some time since, was caught in Washington County, a few days since and brought to this city yesterday. His insanity is of long standing, and at times, when unrestrained, he becomes quite boisterous, if not dangerous.

PERSONAL.—We are glad to note the return of Captain R. Catlin, U. S. A., to this city. He is a graduate of West Point Military Academy, and did good service on the side of the Union, in the late "unpleasantness." He was severely wounded at the battle of Gettysburg. We hope he will be stationed on this coast.

OREGON ZEITUNG—The title of the German paper has been changed to the above. It makes its reappearance this morning, presenting a neat typographical appearance.

EXCURSION.—The steamer Ranger will make an excursion to Vancouver to-morrow. There will be a band in attendance, and a ticket for round trip costs one dollar.

TO SAIL TO-DAY.—The steamship Active will sail for Victoria at 7 P. M. to-day, and the Continental will sail for San Francisco at the same hour.

HYOU SALMON.—Four hundred cases of Chinook salmon were transferred from the steamboat Ranier to the bark Almatia at Oak Point.

RIVER SIDE TRACK—RACE.—There will be a race at the above course to-day at four o'clock this afternoon,—sweepstakes, $100 each. Acker names "John Brown;" Pet. Smith names "Digger;" W. H. Newkirk names "Buckskin." A numerous attendance is expected.

GOING EAST.—Mr. F. S Ostheim, President of the Turn Verein Society, and an old citizen of Portland, leaves on the steamer for a visit to the East. Mr. Ostheim has many warm friends here who wish him a safe and speedy return.

DREDGING.—Arrangements are being made to finish the dredging of Swan Island Bar. Lieut. Huer, who came up on the Continental, will proceed with the work as soon as the water reaches a sufficiently low stage.

FAVORS.—Mr. Tarbell, Purser of the steamer Geo. S. Wright, has our thanks for late Victoria papers.

EVERYBODY seems to provide himself with a Fourth of July Hat since this hot weather has set in, which keeps Meussdorffer very busy making them.

THE BROADWAY STYLES OF BOYS' HATS received per last steamer, and for sale by J. A. Daly, 103 Front street.

FURNISHED ROOMS, with Board, for gentleman and wife, at Mrs. Wright's 203 Second Street.

Notice.—The Board of Foremen will meet at Vigilance H. & L. House this evening at 7½ o'clock. Business of importance.

W. H. WEED,
Chief Engineer.

Notice.—A Regular Meeting of the Portland Turn Verein will be held Sunday, August 2d, 1868, at 11 o'clock A. M., at Turn Verein Hall. Business of importance requires a full attendance.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all kinds.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions. The sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands love, and the means of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees introducing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud tends to divert injury to the public, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervous Despondency, [illegible] of Spirits, Constipation, [illegible] Intermittent Fevers, [illegible] Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints [illegible] arising from Bodily Weakness [illegible]
PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CA[illegible]
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the [illegible] and secretive organs.
Persons of [illegible] habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS [illegible] effects which must be experienced [illegible] they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all [illegible] it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-[illegible] them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

PORTLAND, OREGON July 14, 1868

P D MOORE, Esq, Sir—

The undersigned having witnessed the exhibition in this city yesterday of your "Extinguisher" or Portable Self Acting Fire Engine, would state that the first experiment of a fire kindled outside of the building erected in the rear of the Central Public School House made by using shavings tar &c, was effectually extinguished with one machine in a short time that the second experiment of a fire in the inside of the building, made by using shavings, kerosene staves and dry stuff was also [illegible] extinguished by the use of one machine in less than three minutes The third experiment was left to the control of the Fire Department, under the direction of the Chief Engineer and the building was fired inside and outside, and when the fire was well under way the Chief Engineer gave the order to "extinguish" and the fire was effectually put out in about six minutes A brisk [illegible] at the time, and we pronounce the experiment successful and satisfactory We are satisfied that the "EXTINGUISHER" is very valuable for what it claims namely the prompt extinguishment of fires in their earlier stages, and being portable self acting and always ready at a moment's notice, would, if generally introduced save much valuable property from destruction and we regard it as a valuable auxiliary to the Fire Department They are indispensable in those localities where no steam or other fire engine is in use and we recommend their use generally in dwellings stores hotels, and public buildings.

Very respectfully,

W H WEED,
Chief Engineer Portland Fire Department

P D MOORE, Esq.—Sir I have just returned from witnessing the operations of your "Extinguisher" or Portable Self-Acting Fire Engine and confess I was both surprised and highly pleased with its success

I have no doubt whatever of its efficiency and adaptation to putting out fires in their earlier stages however combustible the materials may be that are burning Its action on a flame is really magical They should be in every house of any value, or which contains valuable property, as well as on board of vessels No one can estimate the additional security they give to both life and property You will please furnish me two of the No 2 size immediately for the Alaska as I sail for Honolulu to-morrow morning Very respectfully

To all whom it may concern I hereby give notice that the so-called Shipley s Pacific Turbine Water Wheel is a direct infringement and copy of the James Leffel s American Double Turbine Water Wheel and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited Any person or persons making using, constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties Parties interested will take notice for I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law

That all may know I mean what I say and am not playing bluff I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

WASHINGTON D C April 17 1868

MR A MYERS—In accordance with your request we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Lefel s patents In both of Shipley s Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all He has no right to use those two tiers of buckets, whether alone or with a third or any other number of tiers added It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours

DODGE & MUNN

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents whether it is the maker user buyer or seller Every infringement whether our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted

To all whom it may concern —One A Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law.' His statements are not worth a denial His game is 'Bluff,' which if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out Don t believe him

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient s letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES FREE

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.
